

Graduate Programs Application Essay

The purpose of this essay is to demonstrate your ability to succeed in a graduate program of study at Hodges University. The essay should be two to four pages, double-spaced, using a 12-point Times New Roman font, and written in the first person using the active voice. The essay will be evaluated for use of proper grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, and clarity of content.

The following topics should be addressed in your essay:

Discuss your interest in pursuing a graduate degree in the field/discipline you have chosen.

Discuss your strengths and weaknesses in regard to the field/discipline you have chosen.

We live in a society where personal ethics as well as business ethics are being scrutinized. Define personal ethics and business ethics, and how situational ethics may (or may not) impact these definitions. Then provide a short scenario describing an ethical dilemma and what steps you would take to resolve this dilemma.
