HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY: Change the fourth paragraph to the following:

An additional campus center was opened for classroom instruction in nearby Fort Myers in 1992. This campus, now located at 4501 Colonial Boulevard, Fort Myers, Florida 33966 (telephone 239-482-0019), is easily accessible from I-75, the main highway artery between Naples and Fort Myers. The University also establishes learning sites as the need arises.

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS: Change the second paragraph to the following:

The University reserves the right to deny admission to an applicant when such action is deemed to be in the best interest of the applicant or the University. The University does not accept applicants with a felony record who are registered sexual predators or offenders into its programs of study. Other applicants with a felony record may complete a Felony Conviction Appeal Form which is reviewed by an interdepartmental panel. Once the panel has reviewed the candidate, the panel will determine the candidate's ability to move forward in the admissions process. A candidate who is denied admission may elect to appeal to the Senior Vice President of Student and Academic Services whose decision is final.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSIONS: Change the paragraph to the following:

After the interview process is completed, an application for admission needs to be filed with the University along with a non-refundable application fee. A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university is required along with official transcripts from all prior colleges and universities.

ASSESSMENT PROCESS: Change the first sentence to the following:

Students making application to enter a graduate program at Hodges University are assessed by the Graduate Program Director on the basis of a weighted formula focusing upon two criteria:
